

English Conversation Program (ECP)

The Learning Exchange offers free conversational English sessions to Canadian citizens, new immigrants and refugees ages 19+. If you are looking for a fun, casual environment to learn and practice your English, contact us. We offer four levels from beginner to advanced. Sessions are offered weekly and focus on conversation skills using a wide range of topics including Canadian culture. Some classes are online via Zoom. For more information or to register, call 604-822-6169. ECP Term 1 runs Jan. 15 to Mar. 22, 2024.

Seniors Thrive (ECP)

For local seniors (55+) who want to practice their English in a new and challenging way, Seniors Thrive offers activities just for you! Whether you like to sing, act, dance or play, you can learn English while getting exercise, meeting new friends and learning a new skill or two. Some classes are online via Zoom. For more information or to register, call 604-822-6169. ECP Term 1 runs Jan 15 to Mar 22, 2024.

Computer Workshops

The basic and advanced computer programs are free, but require pre-registration. The basic workshops cover topics such as setting up email, file management and basic Microsoft Word. The advanced workshops explore Microsoft Word and Excel for a work environment. For more information, call 604-827-2772.

Drop In & Computers

Come by to use our computers or free Wi-Fi, access resources, join an activity watch a documentary, and/or have a coffee. Sessions are first-come, first-serve. Basic tech help is offered; for more advanced needs, visit a Tech Cafe session (see below). For more information, call 604-827-2772.

Tech Café

Get your tech questions answered in these peer-led drop-in sessions. Learn how to use Android, iPhone, tablets, iPads, laptops, email, and social media, or ask other questions about personal technologies. Sessions happen in a variety of locations, including Oppenheimer Park (400 Powell St.) and the Carnegie Community Centre (401 Main St.). Any questions, leave a message at 604-827-2772.
